CLIENT RIGHTS

1. Be treated with dignity, courtesy, respect, and without unlawful discrimination.
2. Receive services free from abuse, neglect, exploitation, harassment, and retaliation.
3. Receive information about planned services, schedules, charges, and material changes before they take effect when practicable.
4. Participate in the development and review of the service plan and communicate preferences or concerns.
5. Refuse a service, subject to applicable law and the agency explaining foreseeable consequences or alternatives when appropriate.
6. Have personal, financial, and health information handled according to applicable privacy and confidentiality requirements.
7. Voice a complaint or grievance without retaliation and receive information on how the agency handles complaints.
8. Know the identity and role of individuals providing services and request reasonable staffing changes when available.
9. Receive information about how to contact agency management and, where required, the appropriate state oversight agency.

CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Provide accurate information relevant to services and safety.
2. Notify the agency of material changes in condition, schedule, address, contacts, or service needs.
3. Provide a reasonably safe working environment and disclose known hazards, pets, smoking, weapons, or access concerns.
4. Treat caregivers and staff respectfully and follow agreed scheduling, cancellation, and billing terms.
5. Notify the agency promptly of complaints, service concerns, or suspected safety issues.
